Bernstein Receives Highest REALTOR Honor

Carol Bernstein, REALTOR from Albuquerque, was honored as recipient of the REALTORS Association of New Mexico's (RANM) highest honor – being named 2014 REALTOR of the Year.

Bernstein received this award during ceremonies at the RANM Celebration Gala, part of RANM's Annual Conference and New Mexico Housing Summit, August 21st. The banquet was held at the Hyatt Regency Albuquerque.

The RANM REALTOR of the Year is awarded annually to an outstanding leader who has committed time, talent, and expertise to the REALTOR organization, their community, and to furthering the real estate profession.

Bernstein earned her New Mexico real estate license in 1976 and has been a REALTOR volunteer and leader in the real estate community ever since.

She has served on many committees for the Greater Albuquerque Association of REALTORS and the REALTORS Association of New Mexico where she currently serves as Central District Vice President and a member of the Issues Advocacy Fund, Professional Standards, and Mediation Committees. Carol served for many years as the Federal Political Coordinator for Representative Heather Wilson and has been a member of several NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS committees.

In 2007 Bernstein was honored by RANM by being named the first recipient of the Peggy Comeau Leadership Award.

Bernstein has also served her community as a volunteer in many capacities at Congregation B'nai Israel of Albuquerque and Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America.

Bernstein will be honored with other state REALTORS of the Year during the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS Annual Convention, November 5-10 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

The REALTORS Association of New Mexico is one of the state's largest trade associations, representing over 5,500 members involved in all aspects of the residential and commercial real estate markets throughout New Mexico.
